

Employees Making a Difference. Everyday.

The Dallas County Juvenile Department strives to put “youth first” in each decision that it makes.

The Dallas County Juvenile Department is one of the largest juvenile departments in Texas, with over 1,000 employees and nearly 7,000 youth between the ages of 10 and 17 entering the formal juvenile system annually. Youth receive rehabilitative services from one of our programs, school campuses and many community partnerships. Through a juvenile court process known as adjudication, youth are referred and recommended for a variety of programs that fit the needs and best interests of the youth and community.
